Course Description:
This introductory course provides an overview of the principles of nutritional science. Subject matter includes description and functions of nutrients, digestion and absorption, effects of nutrient deficiencies and toxicities, requirements, food sources, nutrient interactions, dietary guidelines, and the role of nutrition in health and disease.

General Education Objectives:
This course satisfies a UF general education requirement in Biological Sciences. Biological science courses provide instruction in the basic concepts, theories and terms of the scientific method in the context of the life sciences. Courses focus on major scientific developments and their impacts on society, science and the environment, and the relevant processes that govern biological systems. Students will formulate empirically-testable hypotheses derived from the study of living things, apply logical reasoning skills through scientific criticism and argument, and apply techniques of discovery and critical thinking to evaluate outcomes of experiments.

Course Goals:
By the end of the course, you will be able to:
1. List the nutrients needed by humans and explain their major functions in the body
2. Identify dietary sources for major nutrients
3. Define the meaning of energy balance, and explain methods to calculate energy needs
4. Explain the relationship between diet and the prevention of chronic diseases
5. Explain how nutrient requirements in humans are determined and how this information is used to provide dietary guidance for general population
6. Make informed decision about food choice and improve one’s own eating habits

Prerequisites:
To enroll in this course, you must have taken an introductory biology, chemistry, or physiology course. Examples of courses that would meet this requirement include:
• BSC 2005, 2007, 2010
CHM 1025, 1030, 2045
• APK 2100C or 2105C

Required Textbook: “Understanding Nutrition”, 16th Ed., Whitney and Rolfes, Cengage Learning, 2021. You can purchase access to the digital text right through UF All Access, it and it will be charged to your account.

Instructional Methods:

This course is delivered 100% online. All students are expected to find the course materials at the course webpage. The course is divided into 14 modules. You can study these modules at your own pace, but the course must be completed within 16 weeks from the date of your enrollment. All course materials and assignments are available 24 hours a day.

Each module consists of video lectures, presentation slides and handouts, reading assignments, and additional supplementary materials (videos and/or readings) relevant to the module. For each module, there will be a short assessment quiz, which covers material for that specific module. In addition to quizzes, we have exams and assignments. For details about quizzes, exams and assignments, please refer to “Assessment Details”.

The best way to study the course materials in each module is to begin with the learning goals. It will help you understand the important learning points for that specific module. Next, watch video lecture recordings. Each recording is approximately 10-20 min length. I recommend to print out the presentation handout prior to watching the lectures and take notes while you watch them. Presentation slides is a simple summary of what is being explained in the lecture. Much more than what is in the slide is explained in the lecture, and it will be helpful to take notes while you watch the video.

Then, read the assigned chapters from the textbook, and read other documents or watch the videos that are posted as supplementary materials (if any). The textbook will provide details and support the lecture. And any supplementary materials will offer examples of what we learned from the lecture, and expand your scope of learning. Next, proceed to the assessment quiz. The quizzes are designed to assess your understanding of the lecture materials.

Other than assessment quizzes, we have 4 exams scheduled after module 3, 6, 9, and 14. You have to take the assessment quizzes and exams to advance to the next module. Similar to quizzes, all exams are open-note. However, all exams will be proctored using an online proctoring system, Honorlock. In addition, there are three assignments in this course. As this is flexible learning course, there is no specific due date for each assignment. However, all assignment must be submitted at least 1 week prior to the course expiration date.

What is most important is not rush through the course. While you can study at your own pace, it is highly recommended to establish a regular study schedule and make steady progress.

Assessment Details:

(1) Assessment quizzes: There are 14 assessment quizzes (one quiz for each module) and one syllabus review quiz. Each quiz covers the lecture contents and reading materials (except the syllabus quiz which covers the course syllabus). The quizzes should be taken online via the Canvas course page. The questions will be multiple choice or True/False questions selected from a question pool (10 questions for each quiz). The quizzes are open-note, so you can use class notes or lecture handouts. Each quiz will be timed and should be completed in 20 min. You will have 2 attempts for each quiz, and the higher grades will be used as your final grade. The second attempt is optional. It is only to give you a chance to improve your grade/study more if you did not do well on your first attempt. It is important that you read and watch the lecture for the covered module before taking the quiz. All quizzes must be taken at least 2 weeks prior to the course expiration date. For details, please refer to the course outline.

(2) Exams: There are 4 exams in this course. Each exam covers multiple modules and contains multiple choice and True/False questions. They are open-note exams, but, unlike quizzes, will be proctored by Honorlock. All exams should be taken online via the Canvas course website. Each exam will be Honorlock will proctor your exams this semester. Honorlock is an online proctoring service that allows you to take your exam from the comfort of your home. You DO NOT need to create an account, download software or schedule an appointment in advance. Honorlock is available 24/7 and all that is needed is a computer, a working webcam, and a stable Internet connection.

To get started, you will need Google Chrome and to download the Honorlock Chrome Extension. You can download the extension at www.honorlock.com/extension/install. When you are ready to test, log into Canvas, go to your course, and click on your exam. Clicking "Launch Proctoring" will begin the Honorlock authentication process, where you will take a picture of yourself, show your ID, and complete a scan of your room. Honorlock will be recording your exam session by webcam as well as recording your screen. Honorlock also has an integrity algorithm that can detect search-engine use, so please do not attempt to search for answers, even if it's on a secondary device.

Honorlock support is available 24/7/365. If you encounter any issues, you may contact them by live chat, phone (844-243-2500), and/or email (support@honorlock.com).

(3) Assignments: There are 3 assignments in this course. These assignments are related to course materials, and you will learn how to apply your learning to real-word situations. Detailed instructions for each assignment will be provided in the course website in canvas. The course expires 16 weeks after your enrollment. All assignments must be submitted electronically through Canvas at least 2 weeks prior to the course expiration date.

Course Policies:

Performance Policy: This Flexible Learning course has been developed with the same rigorous standards of content as a campus course. Expectations for your performance as a Flexible Learning student are as high as they would be if you were taking this course in a classroom.

Participation Policy: Students are required to participate in all course activities and submit all assignments posted on the website.

Course Completion Policy: Students are allotted 16 weeks to complete the course from the date of their enrollment. If a student fails to complete the course before the expiration date, a failing grade (E, E0 or E1) will be issued and recorded to the UF registrar. Students also need to spend at least 6 weeks to complete the course. A final grade will not be posted until students have been in the course for 6 weeks.

- All quizzes, exams, and assignments must be completed and submitted for grading a minimum of two weeks before the course expiration date. This is to ensure the grades will be posted in plenty of time for transcripts.
- The policy is to submit up to 2 assignments per week, with as the maximum.
