Course Communications

If you have questions about the course, please email me through Canvas. If it’s an urgent question, then please email me at ReneeMK@gmail.com or send me a text at 573.356.2346.

Instructor will respond to students’ inquiries within 24 hours on workdays and within 48 hours on weekends.

Required and/or Recommended Textbooks

This course covers the role and responsibilities of the media in American society. Students will gain an understanding of specific areas of mass communication, including newspapers, television, magazines, radio, internet, movies, advertising and public relations. The course provides an overview of the evolution of mass communication and emphasizes how media messages interact with culture.

Course Goals and/or Objectives After completing this course, students will be able to:

• Describe the evolution of mass communication
• Analyze their media use and how it may shape their views and values
• Identify key moments in media history
• Describe the power of visual communication
• Have a basic familiarity with different mediums (newspapers, magazines, radio, etc.)
• Discuss the current economic pressures on newspapers and the role of the Web
• Recognize the need for journalists to serve as “watchdogs” of society
• Explain how public relations and advertising differs from journalism
• Describe concerns about media ownership in a democratic society

Instructional Methods

You have the opportunity to progress through the course according to your schedule because all course materials and assignments are available to you 24 hours a day.

Course Policies

Performance Policy Course Policies

This course has been developed with the same rigorous standards of content as a campus course. Expectations for your performance as an online student are as high as they would be if you were taking this course in a classroom. You are expected to log in to class multiple times a week and to monitor the course for new announcements. You need to submit the assignments and complete the quizzes by the deadline. Late work is not accepted no matter the reason. Work ahead to avoid last-minute technical issues.

Participation Policy

Students are required to participate in all course activities and submit all assignments posted on the website. You should also participate on the Introductions thread.

Quiz Policy

For each quiz, you will have 20 minutes to answer 20 questions. You may have your book with you while you take the exam, but you will not do well unless you have read the chapter and watched the video lecture. Quizzes are due by the deadline. Missed quizzes cannot be made up for any reason. Plan ahead if you have questions about any quiz answers, then please email me.

Make-up Policy

You are not allowed to make-up any missed quizzes. If you miss an assignment, you can submit it one day late for half credit. If it is more than one day late, then no credit is given.
Course Technology

Students must use their Gatorlink email account for this course. Students are recommended to check their email account DAILY for the duration of the course. Access to and on-going use of a computer with Internet access is required for all students. Competency in the basic use of a computer is required. At times, computers crash and Internet connections fail. It is in your best interest NOT to wait until the last minute to complete assignments.

For help with e-Learning, contact the Help Desk at http://helpdesk.ufl.edu or (352) 392-HELP - select option 2.

Accommodations:
Your instructor should be notified of any special accommodations required by the student when they begin their course.

Students with disabilities who need to drop a course due to disability-related reasons are permitted to petition for additional drops. Find more information by contacting the Disability Resource Center (https://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc).

Flexible Learning Policies

Extension Policy:

Students are allowed 16 weeks from their date of enrollment to complete and submit their coursework.

If the student has made sufficient academic progress, which is defined as completing and submitting at least 50% of the coursework and has an extenuating circumstance, the student may petition the Flexible Learning Office for a course extension before the course expires. Please email learn@dce.ufl.edu with your extension request.

If the student has not submitted at least 50% of their coursework, or the extension is denied, a failing grade of “E”, “E0” or “E1” will be issued and recorded to the UF Registrar.

Course Cancels and Course Drops:

A Course Cancel:
Course cancellations must be completed in ONE.UF within 10 days of enrollment. No refunds are granted after 10 days. It is the student's responsibility to verify that all cancellation requests have been received by the Flexible Learning office within the allotted time.

To cancel a course sign on to ONE.UF, select “Register/View Schedule” in the Courses & Registration section. Then select the course(s) you wish to cancel and submit.
Course Drop:
To drop a course, you will need to complete your request in ONE.UF within 14 weeks of the date of enrollment. It is the student's responsibility to verify that all drop requests have been received by the Flexible Learning office within the allotted time. The course grade will appear as "W" on a UF transcript.

To drop a course sign on to ONE.UF, select “Register/View Schedule” in the Courses & Registration section. Then select the course(s) you wish to drop, include reason and submit.

*UF Undergraduate Students Only-Once you have done this, you must notify your Academic Advisor that you have submitted a drop request.*UF Undergraduate Students Only-Once you have done this, you must notify your Academic Advisor that you have submitted a drop request.

Full-Term Withdrawals

All full-term withdrawals must follow University of Florida policies/procedures. An approved withdrawal form must be submitted to the Dean of Students’ Office for review and final approval.

For information on the retroactive nonmedical withdrawal process, visit the Office of the University Registrar (http://www.registrar.ufl.edu/currents/petitioninstructs.html).

University Policy on Accommodating Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, https://dso.ufl.edu/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

University Policy on Academic Misconduct

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Plagiarism

“A student shall not represent as the student’s own work all or any portion of the work of another. Plagiarism includes but is not limited to:

1. Quoting oral or written materials including but not limited to those found on the internet, whether published or unpublished, without proper attribution.
2. Submitting a document or assignment which in whole or in part is identical or substantially identical to a document or assignment not authored by the student.”

Source: Regulations of the University of Florida, UF-4.041.

“For a violation or violations of the Honor Code, a student may receive any of the sanctions that can be imposed for Student Conduct Code violations, including but not limited to conduct probation, suspension and expulsion as well as any educational sanctions. In addition, students may receive the following:

1. Assignment grade penalty. The student is assigned a grade penalty on an assignment including but not limited to a zero.
2. Course grade penalty. The student is assigned a grade penalty in the entire course including but not limited to an ‘E’.

Netiquette

All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions and chats. Please read the Netiquette Guide for Online Courses.

Security

Remember that your password is the only thing protecting you from pranks or more serious harm.

- Don't share your password with anyone
- Change your password if you think someone else might know it
- Always logout when you are finished using the system

Getting Help

Technical Help

If you have issues with videos, go to the Mediasite Helpdesk.

For other technical difficulties, please contact the UF Computing Help Desk:

- Location: HUB 132
- Email: helpdesk@ufl.edu
- Phone: (352) 392-HELP - select option 2
- Website: https://lss.at.ufl.edu/help.shtml

Disability Accommodations:

The Disability Resource Center in the Dean of Students Office provides students and faculty with information and support regarding accommodations for students with disabilities. Staff at the Disability Resource Center will assist any student who registers as having a disability. Official documentation of a disability is required to determine eligibility for appropriate accommodations. The professional employees at the Disability Resource Center serve as full-time advocates for students with disabilities ensuring students have physical and programmatic access to all college programs. One of the services provided by the Disability Resource Center includes:

- Testing Accommodations: disability.ufl.edu/students/accommodated-testing-request
Students with disabilities who need to drop a course due to disability-related reasons are permitted to petition for additional drops. Find more information by contacting the Disability Resource Center (DRC).

The Flexible Learning Office needs to be notified of any special accommodations required by the student when they begin their course by emailing the Accommodations Letter to learn@dce.ufl.edu.

Course Deadline and Extension Policy:
Students are allowed 16 weeks, from their date of enrollment, to complete and submit their coursework.

If the student has made sufficient academic progress, which is defined as completing and submitting at least 50% of the coursework and has an extenuating circumstance, the student may petition the instructor for a course extension before the course expires.

If the student has not submitted at least 50% of their coursework and has an extenuating circumstance preventing them from submitting the coursework, a failing grade of “E”, “E0” or “E1” will be issued and recorded to the UF Registrar.

Instructors are not required to allow extensions. If a student does receive an extension, an incomplete grade of an “I” will be assigned as an interim grade. When the course is completed, the instructor will initiate the change of grade. After that, the “I” grade will be changed to the student’s final course grade on their transcript.

Course Cancels and Course Drops:

A Course Cancel:
The request to cancel a course must be submitted in writing and emailed to learn@dce.ufl.edu within 10 days of enrollment date. It is the student's responsibility to verify that all cancellation requests have been received by the Flexible Learning office within the allotted time. No refunds are granted after 10 days.

Course Drop:
The request to drop a course must be submitted in writing and emailed to learn@dce.ufl.edu within 14 weeks of the date of enrollment. In addition to their own request by email, UF students must have advisor approval to drop a flexible learning course. It is the student's responsibility to verify that all drop requests have been received by the Flexible Learning office within the allotted time. The course grade will appear as "W" on a UF transcript.

Full Term Withdrawals:
All full-term withdrawals must follow University of Florida policies/procedures. An approved withdrawal form must be submitted to the Dean of Student Affairs, for review and final approval. Students must also notify the Flexible Learning of this request by learn@dce.ufl.edu.
It is the responsibility of the student to notify Flexible Learning of their approved medical or retroactive withdrawal, so the students’ record is updated. Email to our office a copy of the approval.
